SILVERDALE BEAT SAD SAM A NOSE.

Fighting Finish Between Two
Youngsters in the Fourth
Race at Memphis.

AN EXCITING STEEPELCHASE.

General Horses Fell, and C. Johnson,
Jim Hogg's Jockey, Was
Seriously Injured—Triaditzia
Finished Second.

Memphis, Tenn., April 9.—The card at Montgomery Park this afternoon was devoid of stake features, but road racing was the order of the day. The most exciting event was the steeplechase over the full course, in which several horses fell, giving their riders bad shucks-ups. As the horses were at the post Jim Hogg fell on his side, crushing the well-known steeplechase jockey, C. Johnson. The boy was taken from the field on stretcher and medical attendance was summoned. The physicians do not think the jockey is fatally hurt, but his injuries are serious. Worthington was substituted and after being thrown heavily by Jim Hogg at the fifth jump, remounted and plunkily finished the race, securing third position. Cheesemate, the favorite, made clean jumps of all the hurdles and won by half a mile from Hogg, who had also thrown his rider. Out of the eight starters in the race, seven horses fell at some part of the journey.

Triaditzia was played high off the boards to win the second race, but second was the best she could do. Hogg was given much the best of the start, making his lead throughout, winning handily by a length from Triaditzia, who was off bad.

The fourth race, at half a mile, brought seven youngsters to the post. Silverdale being favorite over Sad Sam, the triple stake winner at New Orleans. The two had the running to themselves at the finish. Silverdale winning through Burns's superior riding, by a neck.

Only two favorites won. The track was short from last night's rain. To-morrow the Tennessee Stakes, at one mile, will be decided, and seven are entered to contest for the race, among them being Brownie Atkinson, Shreve, Tandy and Belle of Orleans.
